

North West Camelid Foundation

Raising Funds for Camelid Research Since 1987

RESEARCH GRANT PROPOSAL APPLICATION

Submission

Proposals are due June 1. The earliest funding is September 1. Submit the proposal electronically to Glen Pfefferkorn at glenmor2@gmail.com

Grant Proposal Format

Cover page - Research Grant Application cover page (following page)

Lay Abstract - Maximum 250 words

Introduction - Include sufficient background for lay readers to understand the research.

Objective/Hypotheses

Preliminary Data

Materials and Methods - List materials to be used and methods of administration.

Statistical analysis - Explain how you determined number of animals required and data analysis.

Resources - Describe equipment and space available.

Results - Indicate expected results and how they address the objective/hypotheses.

Budget - Submit a detailed budget. Report by year for multiple year projects.

Time line - Explain time for sample collection, analysis and report writing.

Cite Literature referenced

C.V.'s - All investigators or mentors need to supply an abbreviated (2 page maximum);
CV review should be included.

Student Interns/Residents Proposals--Additional Requirements & Limitations

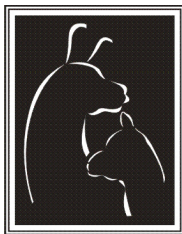

Letter of support from the mentor

Letter of support from the College Dean

Must be completed within one year or prior to graduation

Length of Submitted Proposal

The proposal, from cover page to time line, should not exceed five (5) typed 8.5 x 11-inch pages.

North West Camelid Foundation

Raising Funds for Camelid Research Since 1987

RESEARCH GRANT APPLICATION COVER PAGE

Principle Investigator Information

Name: _____ Title: _____

University Affiliation: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____ E-mail _____

Project Title _____

Research Location _____

Names, Affiliations and Addresses of Collaborating Researchers or Mentors

Financial Summary

Amount Requested: $ _____ Year 1 _____ Year 2 _____ Publication $ _____

Other Sources of Funding: Yes ___ No ___ Amount: $ _____

Source of other funds: _____

Will the proposed project involve?

Use of live animals Yes ___ No ___

Blood collections Yes ___ No ___

Urine or fecal collection Yes ___ No ___

Animal Care and Use Approval

Yes ___ No ___ Already have ___ Pending ___ Will request ___

Is this study part of a larger on-going project?

Yes ___ No ___ Explain _____

Will results be published in a scientific journal or distributed via other processes?

Yes ___ No ___ Explain. _____

I certify I am the investigator and that information in this application is true. I agree to the terms and conditions of funding by the North West Camelid Foundation.

Principle Investigator Signature _____ Date _____

Co-Investigator (Mentor) Signature _____ Date _____